Eminent citizens honoured as Brahma Kumaris complete 80 yrs

The Governor inaugurated conference- 15-10-2017

Chandigarh. The world is nothing but your thoughts, this was the key message that emerged out of a national conference held to celebrate 80 years of Brahma Kumaris, a spiritual-cultural organisation engaged in spreading world peace and positive change since 1937.

Haryana governor Kaptan Singh Solanki inaugurated the conference titled 'God's Wisdom For World Transformation', on Sunday, at Tagore Theatre.

"Brahma Kumaris is truly an example of women empowerment. This is one of it’s kind of organisation across the world led by women. 80 years is a long journey and is important for any organisation. I congratulate the organisation on the successful completion of this ongoing journey," said Solanki, in his address.

He added that Brahma Kumaris had rendering their spiritual services with the same honesty, devotion and motivation as they did 80 years ago.

Who were honoured

Some dignitaries honoured included Major General MS Kandal (retd), nominated councillor, in the Chandigarh municipal corporation; JagdishLal Ahuja, PGI Bhandare Wale; Deepak Dhiman, state head, DainikBhaskar, Chandigarh; Rajendra K Saboo, chairman, KDDL Ltd, Chandigarh, Sanjay Tandon, president, BharatiyaJanata Party (BJP), Chandigarh, Nirupama Subramanian, resident editor, The Indian Express, Chandigarh, and CaptGurjiwan Singh Sidhu, veteran athlete, Chandigarh.

As a responsible citizen, aware of the developmental needs of the society, they have been rendering their meticulous services for uplifting social and ethical values in their individual as well as their organisational capacities.

In another programme, participants from Chandigarh, Punjab, Haryana, J&K, Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand participated, meant to honour the Senior devoted Brahma Kumari Sisters who have been associated with the organisation for long and have been instrumental in contributing their meticulous services towards individual and society.

"This celebration is a historic event. In 80 years, the institute has helped transform millions of lives who have been able to incorporate a positive approach to the issues and affairs in their lives and are enjoying a peaceful and meaningful life," said BK Amirchand, director, Punjab Zone & BK Karuna Bhai, Head-Media & Public Relations, Brahma Kumaris, Mount Abu.

The organisation has been contributing towards various social causs like drug de-addiction, women empowerment, BetiPadhaoBetiBachao, Rural Development, Organic farming and many more government and non-goverment projects.